STORY VIEW OF HARVARD

THE Department of Printing and Graphic Arts of the College Library has issued, as the seventh publication in its series Historic Harvard and Cambridge Views, a reproduction of 'A N.W. View of Hollis, Harvard and Massachusetts Halls' painted in water color by Joseph Story in 1795. Story, later the youngest Justice appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States, the first Dane Professor of Law at Harvard, and a member of the Corporation and of the Board of Overseers, painted the picture at the age of fifteen shortly after he had entered the class of 1798. The original now hangs in the President's office in Massachusetts Hall.

The reproduction, executed in colotype by the Meriden Gravure Company and hand colored, measures 9½ by 15 inches. Copies, at $5.00 each, may be ordered from the Department of Printing and Graphic Arts, Houghton Library, Harvard University. Certain other views in this same series are still available.
