HARVARD LIBRARY BULLETIN

Volume XXII

October 1974

Number 4

Published by the Harvard University Library

Cambridge, Massachusetts

EDITORIAL COMMUNICATIONS about the BULLETIN should be addressed to the Editor, 505 Lamont Library, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 02138. Manuscripts should in general be prepared according to the MLA Style Sheet, double spaced throughout, including footnotes and quotations in prose or verse intended to be set in reduced type. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and typed double spaced on a separate sheet after the last page of the article, triple spacing between notes. The pages of the manuscript (including pages containing footnotes) should be numbered consecutively. The author should obtain permission to quote copyrighted material and should always keep a copy of his contribution.

If the manuscript is to be returned by United States mail, postage should accompany the manuscript; if it is delivered by hand to the BULLETIN office, the author should arrange to pick it up unless it can be returned by Harvard University mail.

Contributors receive fifty offprints free of charge. Additional offprints are available to them at cost.

The HARVARD LIBRARY BULLETIN is published four times a year by the Harvard University Library. The subscription price is $15 a year. Single issues are $4.

The BULLETIN is printed by the Harvard University Printing Office and distributed by Harvard University Press at 79 Garden Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 02138. The office of publication and the general business office of the BULLETIN are at this address.

Publication of the BULLETIN is made possible by a bequest from George L. Lincoln '95, and by a fund established in memory of William A. Jackson.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

WILLIAM BENTINCK-SMITH has edited the Harvard Alumni Bulletin (1946-1954) and The Harvard Book, which was published by the Harvard University Press in 1953; he was Assistant to the President of Harvard University (1954-1971), and is now Publication Associate in the Development Office of the University and Honorary Curator of Type Specimens and Letter Design in the Harvard College Library.

DOUGLAS W. BRYANT is University Librarian, Director of the Harvard University Library, Professor of Bibliography, and Associate of Quincy House. Before coming to Harvard in 1952 as Administrative Assistant Librarian, he had been associated successively with the libraries of Stanford University and the University of Michigan, the Detroit Public Library, and the University of California, Berkeley. From 1949 to 1952 he was Director of Libraries of the United States Information Service in London. Since 1969 he has been Chairman of the Committee on Research Libraries of the American Council of Learned Societies.

ROBERT D. HUME, Associate Professor of English at Cornell University, is the author of Dryden's Criticism, which was published by the Cornell University Press in 1970, and of numerous articles, including "The Date of Dryden's Marriage A-la-Mode" in the April 1973 HARVARD LIBRARY BULLETIN.

JUDITH MILHOUS, whose Cornell University dissertation was on "Thomas Betterton at Lincoln's Inn Fields," is now Assistant Professor of Speech and Dramatic Arts at the University of Iowa.

JOEL MYERSON, Assistant Professor of English at the University of South Carolina, compiled Margaret Fuller: A Descriptive Primary Bibliography and Margaret Fuller: An Annotated Secondary Bibliography, both to be published by Burt Franklin next year. He is now preparing a bibliographical guide to the study of New England Transcendentalism.

JAMES T. WILLS, a Teaching Fellow at University College of the University of Toronto, is writing a dissertation on William Blake.
