JEFFREY F. HAMBURGER is the Kuno Francke Professor of German Art and Culture in the Department of History of Art and Architecture at Harvard University, as well as the Chair of the Medieval Studies Committee. A specialist in German art of the Middle Ages, especially manuscript illumination, he has also published widely on the art of female monasticism and the history of attitudes towards imagery in the medieval period.

FELIX HEINZER, former curator of manuscripts at Wurttemberg State Library (Stuttgart), is since 2005 professor of medieval Latin at Freiburg University. Among his research interests are monastic libraries and manuscripts, especially liturgical books, as well as medieval liturgical poetry.

PETER KIDD resigned as curator of medieval illuminated manuscripts at the British Library in 2006 to become a freelance researcher and cataloger of medieval manuscripts. Much of his own research focuses on English psalters from the eleventh to the fifteenth century, but his publications on illuminated manuscripts range from the ninth to the sixteenth century, and encompass most European countries.

JAMES H. MARROW, a noted expert on medieval manuscript illumination and Northern Renaissance art, is professor emeritus of art history at Princeton University. A member of the American Academy of Arts & Sciences, he also serves as honorary curator of manuscripts at the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge, England.

NIGEL F. PALMER is Professor of German Medieval and Linguistics Studies at the University of Oxford and a Fellow of St Edmund Hall. He is a specialist in Medieval German and Latin literature, with special interests in paleography and codicology, medieval religious literature, early printing, and the literary topography of the South-West of the German lands in the later Middle Ages.

ROBERT SUCKALE, emeritus professor of art history at the Technische Universität, Berlin, has voyaged from island to island along the archipelago of European art history. The major islands are art of the Gregorian Reform movement, French Gothic sculpture and architecture, southern German and Bohemian Gothic painting and sculpture, the art of female monasticism, Early Netherlandish painting, manuscript illumination in Regensburg, Balthasar Neumann and his time, French painting of the nineteenth century, art historiography of the Nazi era, and Paul Klee.

GUDE SUCKALE-REDLEFSEN worked as an art historian in the research project “The Image of the Black” of the Menil-Foundation. Later she published catalogs of the medieval illuminated manuscripts in the State Library of Bamberg. Author of numerous articles and essays on German manuscript illumination of the eleventh through thirteenth century, she has contributed to several facsimile-editions and exhibition catalogs.
